

Resource list from BCPC webinar

Resources from the BC Provincial Court Website

The BC Provincial Court website.

eNews on the BCPC website.

Videos and podcasts on the BCPC website.

Guide for Appearing in the Provincial Court Using Microsoft Teams

Information on court interpreters.

Clicklaw

The Clicklaw website.

General resources for SRLs available on Clicklaw - many of them are from the National Self-Represented Litigants Project.

Clicklaw Handout for SRLs on Criminal Court

Clicklaw Handout for SRLs on Family Court

Clicklaw Handout for SRLs on Small Claims Court

Clicklaw Handout for SRLs on Traffic Court

Courthouse Libraries BC

Information on how to access Courthouse Libraries BC's information services, including their public access computers is available here.

Legal Aid

Legal Aid BC has substantial information on family law, and numerous step-by-step guides on the Family Law in BC website and on MyLawBC website.

Some short videos from Legal Aid intended for the general public about changes to the Provincial Court Family rules, available in multiple languages (English, Simplified Chinese, Punjabi and Tagalog).

Legal Aid BC also has the Family Resolution Centre, where parents can get free help from mediators to make parenting and child support arrangements (if one of the parents and the children live in BC.)

Legal Aid BC also has Family LawLINE, which gives free legal advice on many family law issues over the phone.

604-408-2172 (Greater Vancouver)

1-866-577-2525 (elsewhere in BC)

Legal Aid Community Partners can help people access both print and online information on all areas of law.

Most LABC resources for SRLs in family court are available here and here.

AC Friends of Court

AC Friends of Court website.

AC Friends of Court video (in English and Mandarin) on how to prepare for virtual court and tribunal appearances.

Information on help with forms available through AC Friends of Court.

Justice Education Society

JES video on Legal Independence.

JES provides free family law coaching @LawCoachBC.ca that includes 1 hour of free consultation with an Unbundled Family Law Lawyer.

Free answers to legal questions at Ask JES: 1-855-875-8867 or www.LegalHelpBC.ca

Small Claims BC Online Help Guide

Peoples Law School

Peoples Law School has information on their website on how to deal with everyday legal problems, including steps involved as well as template letters and agreements.

Additional information on everyday legal problems is available on the Dial-A-Law website.

Access Pro Bono

Phone-based Lawyer Referral Service from Access Pro Bono: This service helps you find a suitable lawyer to serve your legal needs. Anyone may call to obtain the contact information of a lawyer who will meet for a free half-hour legal consultation. For family, tenancy, employment, personal injury, wills, estate or trust law issues, you can use their online booking system any time. If you'd like further help from the lawyer, you can retain them at an agreeable rate of charge. There's no obligation for either party to continue after the free consultation. 1-800-663-1919

Native Courtworkers

Indigenous clients in BC can reach out to any Native Courtworker Office with any questions or for support.

Resources specific to unbundled legal assistance

Peoples Law School resources on unbundling.

Law Society of BC information on unbundled services.

Unbundled Family Roster.

Additional resources shared in webinar chat

Book by Denice Barrie: Journey to Justice: How to Effectively Represent Yourself in Court

Video created by Canada's federally appointed judges, which follows someone through criminal and family court proceedings as it explains the role of a judge & judicial independence.